

NATIONAL AWARDS RECIPIENTS

As of October 30, 2023*

NAWBO Hall of Fame Award

Every year, during the National Women's Business Conference hosted by NAWBO, our organization is proud to present Hall of Fame Awards to some of the most dynamic and significant women business owners and advocates in the U.S. Every honoree is a trailblazer in her own right and reflects the legacy of power and success of the women's business community at large.

2011

- Janice Bryant Howroyd
- Koni Kim
- Lynda Weinman
- Maria De Lourdes Sobrino

2012

- Katrina Markoff

2013

- Charlottee Beers
- Alexis Maybank
- Gina Rudan
- Alexandra Wilkis Wilson

2014

- Erin Andrew
- Muffy Davis
- Susan Duffy
- Katherine Kallinis Berman
- Sophie Kallinis LaMontagne
- JJ Ramberg
- Susan Solovic

2015

- Bonnie St John
- Leigh Anne Tuohy
- Suzanne Pease - Unsung Hero Award

2016

- Jenn Lim
- Kim Reynolds
- Charleta B. Taveras
- Jennette Bradley
- Dr. Tererai Trent

2017

- Gayle Lemmon
- Blair Milo
- Kristin Haffert
- Erin Brockovich
- Carolyn Rodz

2018

- Elizabeth Gilbert
- Shabnam Mogharabi

2019

- Tiffany Dufu
- Sophia Amoruso

2020

- Glennon Doyle

2021

- Jessica Matthews
- Diana Nyad
- Cleo Wade

2022

- Molly Bloom
- Magie Cook
- Vera Jones

2023

- Mei Xu
- Dr. Martha Beck

Susan Hager Legacy Award

The Susan Hager Legacy Award began in 2010 in honor of NAWBO's founding president (1974-1975), Susan Hager. Susan was a stalwart champion of women's economic empowerment and built a legacy for others to follow. The Susan Hager Legacy Award gives honor to a person or group of persons who, through their advocacy and actions, helped to establish the legacy of women's entrepreneurship for future generations.

Awardees:

- 2010 Virginia Littlejohn
- 2015 Patty DeDominic
- 2016 Dottie Gandy
- 2017 Darla Beggs
- 2018 Griselda Quezada-Chavez
- 2019 Teresa Meares

2020 Phyllis Hill Slater
2021 Joy Lutes
2022 Michele Schina
2023 Ana Fernandez-Parmet

Gillian Rudd Advocacy Award

The Gillian Rudd Advocacy Award recognizes a women business owner who has made a significant contribution to the status and visibility of women-owned firms and to the empowerment of women entrepreneurs both nationally and internationally. This award is in honor of Gillian Rudd, who served as NAWBO's national president (1987-1988) and contributed both strategy and personal charm to NAWBO's early advocacy activities. Gillian was instrumental in helping NAWBO establish the National Foundation for Women Business Owners—now known as the Center for Women's Business Research.

Awardees:

2010 Dr. Terry Neese
2016 Laura Yamanaka
2017 Monica Smiley
2018 Dr. Patricia Greene
2019 Jill Calabrese Bain
2020 Edie Fraser
2021 Irene Natividad
2022 Anne Freedman
2023 Carnela Renee Hill

Woman Business Owner of the Year Award

The NAWBO National Woman Business Owner of the Year Award recognizes an entrepreneur who excels at strategy, operations, finances, problem solving, overcoming adversity and giving back to her community. It's not based on business size, but rather overall business excellence. * Launched in 2016

Awardees:

2016 Didi Discar
2017 Kim Heathcott
2018 Francine Friedman Griesling, Esq.
2019 Gail Becker, Caulipower
2020 Rebecca Fyffe
2021 Carla Walker-Miller
2022 Moira Vetter
2023 Rebecca Geller

Dr Trent Award

Dr. Trent's life has been an incredible story of pushing beyond the reality of her circumstances and

601 Pennsylvania Ave NW—South Building, Ste 900—Washington, DC 20004
Tel: 800-556-2926 Fax: 202-403-3788

making dreams come true through hard work, perseverance, and grit. Her achievements and initiatives bring the highest level of measure when we look at what women can overcome and bring forth. Those honored with the Dr. Tererai Trent Award should have similar triumphs and traits as Dr. Trent and exemplify “Tinogona – It is achievable!” * Launched in 2017

Awardees:

- 2017 Heather McCarthy
- 2018 Dana Marlowe
- 2019 Tinesha Cherry
- 2020 Tammy Renee Butler
- No more ---

Advocacy Award

NAWBO Advocacy Award honors a woman business owner that advocates for the advancement of the women business owner community in a bipartisan spirit. She is a voice of collaboration and effectively presents or moves legislation, regulation reform or new initiatives forward. Her efforts as a public servant are not limited to the issues that directly affect her business or community. Instead, she uses her platform to bring to light the needs of those who may not have a similar opportunity to raise their voices. The vision and goals of her advocacy set the stage for further advancements for women business owners now and in the future. Launched in 2020*

Awardees:

- 2020 Linda Forman
- 2021 Lisa Fullerton
- 2022 Rohini Dey
- No more ---

Rising Star Award

NAWBO Rising Star Award honors a woman business owner that, through creativity and innovation, is building sustainable growth in her economic and social ecosystem. She utilizes her growing platform as a social entrepreneur to propel her generation and future women business owners, regardless of their age or social standing. Launched in 2021*

Awardees:

- 2021 Anna Welsh
- 2022 Lorena Camargo
- No more ---

Member of the Year Award

The NAWBO Member of the Year is a Premier member who has demonstrated an ongoing commitment to her chapter and who has consistently given of her time and resources to the betterment of the local NAWBO experience. She is peer-nominated and has strengthened the image and role of NAWBO in the public and/or private sector. She gives of herself to individuals within her chapter as well as to the committee(s) on which she serves. She makes her colleagues glad and grateful that they are in the same organization.

Awardees:

2021 Sandra Clitter

2022 Angela Garmon

--- No more ---